- Rules Committee: Francis Frampton gave an update on the Fall Discussion Group's Genealogical Information Groups Series. Beginning October 23 a new format will be used for the Ethnicity Table.
- Membership: Carolyn Miller reported we had several guests and a newmember. She reminded everyone the importance of letting her know any change of e-mail addresses as well as residence addresses and phone numbers.
- Jim Blakeslee mentioned that membership cards were available for the members who had not picked theirs up yet. They will be mailed to members who do not get them at the meeting.
- SCGS Pins: Jeanne reminded everyone that Agnes Brien has our SCGS pins available. They are only $5 and are very nicely made.
- Announcements: Deadline for articles for the next newsletter is Nov. General Membership
- Adjourn at: Motion was made and seconded to adjourn. Meeting adjourned at 11:50 a.m.
- Program: Ralph Nelson introduced Scott Sipple, from William V. Sipple and Son. Mr. Sipple presented a program on the manufacturing of memorial stones, the history behind his family's business, the meaning of some of the symbolism used on stones, and demonstrated how to do a rubbing without damaging the stone. A lively question and answer period followed.
